I personally found this game rather enjoyable. A dark and sinister point-and-click romp through an occult swamp. It's a fairly short game which can easily be completed in under an hour. No dialogue, just creepy

Perhaps a good point and click adventure, but I'll never know. It's obfuscating and frustrating gameplay turned me off immediately. The game tells you nothing whatsoever about the game itself, the story, the character, why you're doing what you're doing, the reasoning for the monsters, not even the start is explained. I liked mystery, but this felt like laziness. I was expecting a Wadjet Eye Games style of gameplay with tight writing, logic and reasoning but in a horror setting. It fell short of that by a country mile. IF you want a horror point and click adventure check out The Charnel House Trilogy. It's superior in EVERY way (and it's only u00a30.95 during the sales).
